Two Way Signs Memorandum of Understanding to Expand TV Wagering Service

Two Way Limited is pleased to announce that it has signed a non-binding Memorandum of Understanding to expand its TV wagering service to Queensland and South Australia, subject to regulatory approval.

The parties to the MOU are Two Way, UNITAB Limited (the operator of the TAB wagering business in Queensland, South Australia and the Northern Territory), FOXTEL and Sky Channel Pty Ltd.

Two Way's TV wagering service, known as Sky Racing ACTIVE, has performed strongly and in line with expectations since its launch in Victoria in April 2008, and in NSW in October 2008. The service, which was pioneered by Tabcorp, Two Way and FOXTEL, has generated very positive feedback from TAB account holders and viewers of the Sky Racing channel in NSW and Victoria.

All betting transactions via the service are safe, secure and encrypted. Further, the service includes extensive consumer safeguards: it is available only to TAB account holders, who must satisfy identification requirements and be over 18; the service is password and PIN code protected; and the service includes onscreen responsible gambling messages.

The parties are now working to finalise a binding long-form agreement. Two Way has already commenced work on the technical deployment of the service. Subject to regulatory approval, it is expected that the service will launch in Queensland and South Australia in the next few months.
